VIROTEC INTERNATIONAL LTD

Transfer of Virotec Group Domicile - Results of Scheme Meeting

The directors of Virotec International Ltd ('Virotec (Aus)') (AIM: VTI), advise that further to the prior announcements in relation to the proposal to effect the change of domicile of the Virotec Group from Australia to England through a scheme of arrangement under the Australian Corporations Act 2001 (the 'Proposed Scheme'), the Supreme Court of Queensland ordered meeting of Virotec (Aus)'s shareholders was held today.

At the meeting, shareholders approved the following resolution:

'That the Scheme of Arrangement proposed to be entered between Virotec International Ltd and the Virotec (Aus) Shareholders, as more particularly described in the Scheme of Arrangement contained in the Explanatory Statement of which the notice convening this meeting forms part, is agreed to (with or without modification as approved by the Supreme Court of Queensland).'

Voting on the resolution was as follows:

	For	Against	Total	% voted "for" of total votes cast
Number of shares voted	63,356,733	176,517	63,533,250	99.72
Number of votes cast	276	15	291	94.85

The next step in the process is the consideration of the Proposed Scheme by the Supreme Court of Queensland which is currently set down for 17 August 2006.

An indicative timetable, which is subject to change, is set out below:

First Supreme Court of Queensland Hearing	19 June 2006 (completed)
